

Procure – Procure is a secure database that uses a person’s username and password. If the user keeps the database updated, all students and staff’s personal information will be stored here. Also, you can access shot records, addresses, emergency lists for each child and employee, student balances, and payment options.

To learn more about Procure click here.

Excel – Excel is a spreadsheet editor/database by Microsoft. You are able to use a username and password. You can store personal information in this database.

To learn more about Excel click here.

ClickUp – ClickUp is a database that is loved and used by large corporations. With ClickUp, users can import and export data easily. Lists, docs, views, and resources management are a few of the application’s key features.

There are multiple pricing options for ClickUp:

Free forever plan for personal use

Unlimited plan: $7/per month

Business plan: $12/per month

Business plus plan: $19/per month

To learn more about ClickUp click here.

MySQL – MySQL is an open source database using rows and columns much like excel. There is a free option, but the other option costs $2,000.

To learn more about MySQL click here.

Microsoft SQL server – Using SQL queries, Microsoft SQL Server can store and retrieve data. Microsoft SQL Server has 3 pricing options: developer (free); Express (free); and Standard – Client Access License ($209).

To learn more about Microsoft SQL Server click here.